

Wednesday 14 June
4:15 – 5:30pm CEST

Bonn Room
World Conference Center, Bonn

THE BRIDGETOWN INITIATIVE

Fit to Finance Climate Justice?

The Bridgetown Initiative (BI) has gained significant traction since its proposal at COP27. Developed through the leadership of the Barbados government, it represents an innovative proposal to deal with some of the critical problems with climate finance.

What outcomes does the Bridgetown Initiative seek to achieve? How does the Bridgetown Initiative align with longstanding demands of climate and social justice movements? Join us for this panel discussion.

Read more about the Bridgetown Initiative

Representative of the Barbados government (TBC)

Bodo Ellmers

Global Policy Forum

Tetet Lauron

Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung

Emilia Reyes

Equidad de Género: Ciudadanía, Trabajo y Familia

Adrián Martínez Blanco

La Ruta Del Clima

Gaya Sriskanthan

Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung