Draft Resolution on Security Council Reform
(13.5.2005)The General Assembly,Recalling its resolutions 48/26 of 3 December 1993 and 53/30 of 1 December 1998,Recognizing the primary responsibility of the Security Council for the maintenance of international peace and security under the Charter of the United Nations,Recognizing also the functions and powers of the General Assembly on matters pertaining to the maintenance of international peace and security as contained in the Charter,Recalling Article 15 (1) of the Charter and recognizing the need for closer cooperation between the Security Council and the General Assembly,Noting that the effectiveness, credibility and legitimacy of the work of the Security Council depend on its representative character, on its ability to discharge its primary responsibility and on carrying out its duties on behalf of all members,Reasserting the purposes and principles of the Charter and recalling that under Article 2 (5) of the Charter, every Member State has pledged to "give the United Nations every assistance in any action it takes in accordance with the present Charter",Stressing that the permanent members of the Security Council bear a special responsibility both to uphold the principles of the Charter and to give their full support to the Organization's actions to maintain international peace and security,Recalling, in this regard, its resolutions 55/235 and 55/236 of 23 December 2000, as updated by resolution 58/256 of 23 December 2003, on the scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations peacekeeping operations,Acknowledging that there are many ways for Member States to contribute to the maintenance of international peace and security, and underlining that members of the Security Council should be elected with due regard to their record of various contributions to this end, and also to equitable geographical distribution, as noted in Article 23 (1) of the Charter, and for their demonstrated commitment to and observance of international norms,Acknowledging also that security and development are intertwined and mutually reinforcing, and that development is an indispensable foundation of collective security,Aiming at the expansion of the membership of the Security Council to better reflect contemporary world realities, thereby shaping a balance of forces capable of enhancing the Council's responsiveness to the views and needs of all Member States, in particular developing countries, and ensuring the adoption of improved working methods,

Recognizing the ongoing efforts of the Security Council to improve its working methods,

Noting with appreciation the efforts of the Open-ended Working Group on the Question of Equitable Representation on and Increase in the Membership of the Security Council and Other Matters Related to the Security Council, which began its work in January 1994,

Seeking in particular to enhance transparency of the Security Council and the participation of non-Council members in the work of the Security Council,

Bearing in mind the United Nations Millenium Declaration of 8 September 2000 adopted by Heads of State and Government, in which they resolved, in respect of reform of the Security Council, to intensify their efforts to achieve a comprehensive reform of the Security Council in all its aspects,

Taking into account relevant recommendations in the Secretary-General's report "In Larger Freedom" (A/59/2005), in particular the recommendation to take a decision on Security Council reform before the summit in September 2005,

Size and Composition

1. Decides

a) that the membership of the Security Council shall be increased from fifteen to twenty-five by adding six permanent and four non-permanent members,

b) that the six new permanent members of the Security Council shall be elected according to the following pattern:

- (i) two from African States,
- (ii) two from Asian States,
- (iii) one from Latin American and Caribbean States,
- (iv) one from Western European and Other States,

c) that the four new non-permanent members of the Security Council shall be elected according to the following pattern:

- (i) one from African States,
- (ii) one from Asian States,
- (iii) one from Eastern European States,
- (iv) one from Latin American and Caribbean States,

Election Procedure for New Permanent Members

2. Invites interested States to inform the members of the General Assembly that they are prepared to assume the functions and responsibilities of permanent members of the Security Council, and to submit their candidatures to the President of the General Assembly within XX days of the adoption of the present resolution,

3. Decides also to proceed, within XX days of the adoption of the present resolution, by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the General Assembly through a secret ballot, to the designation of the States that will be elected to exercise the functions and responsibilities of permanent members of the Security Council, according to the pattern described in paragraph 1 (b), it being understood that if the number of States having obtained the required majority fall short of the number of seats allocated for permanent membership, new rounds of balloting will be conducted for the remaining seats, provided that all the ballots shall be restricted to candidates registered in accordance with paragraph 2 above, until six States obtain the required majority to occupy the six seats.

4. Decides, without prejudice to paragraph 3, to apply the rules of procedure of the General Assembly to the election of the new permanent members of the Security Council,

Veto

5. Decides that the new permanent members should have the same responsibilities and obligations as the current permanent members,

Charter Amendment and Review

6. Decides

a) that no later than two weeks after the designation of States elected to serve as new permanent members of the Security Council, a resolution adopting amendments to the Charter arising from decisions taken in paragraphs 1 and 3 will be put to the vote in accordance with Article 108 of the Charter,

b) that the resolution will include amendments to Articles 27 (2) and (3) and 109 (1) of the Charter to require the affirmative vote of 14 of 25 members of the Security Council for a decision,

7. Decides also that a review conference will be convened under Article 109 of the Charter in 2020,

Working Methods

8. Urges the Security Council to undertake the following measures to enhance transparency, inclusiveness and legitimacy to strengthen the support and understanding of its decisions by the membership of the Organization thereby increasing the Council's effectiveness:

a) As a general rule, meet in a public format open to all Member States of the United Nations. Exceptionally, the Security Council may decide to meet in private,

b) Implement Articles 31 and 32 of the Charter by consulting with non-Security Council members on a regular basis, especially with those members with a special interest in the substantive matter under consideration by the Council,

- c) Grant non-members access, including full participation as appropriate, to subsidiary organs of the Council.
- d) Make draft resolutions and presidential statements, as well as other draft documents that are tabled at informal consultations of the whole of the Council for action on its agenda items, available to non-members of the Council as soon as such documents are tabled, or earlier, if so authorized by the author of the draft.
- e) Hold frequent, timely and qualitative briefings to non-members on the matters discussed in the Security Council and its subsidiary organs, including briefings about its ad hoc missions, their terms of reference, and the findings of such missions.
- f) Hold regular and timely consultations with troop and financial contributing countries as well as other countries that are directly concerned or affected by a peacekeeping operation, as appropriate, before and during the decision-making process on the establishment, conduct, review and termination of peacekeeping operations, including the extension and change of mandates, as well as specific operational issues.
- g) Hold regular consultations with the Presidents of the General Assembly and Economic and Social Council.
- h) Submit the annual report to the General Assembly providing a detailed substantive and comprehensive evaluation of the Council's work pursuant to Articles 15 (1) and 24 (3) of the Charter.
- i) Submit, when necessary, special reports to the General Assembly in accordance with Article 24 (3) of the Charter, for the consideration of the Assembly in accordance with Article 15 (1) of the Charter.
